SCHOLARSHIPS & BURSARIES POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION & PRINCIPLES

Point Blank is committed to making music education accessible to people of all backgrounds. We are delighted to offer our Future S.T.A.R.S. scholarships, bursaries, and funds to support this commitment. These include a range of awards that aim to nurture talent as well as provide access to higher education for specific under-represented groups in higher education.

Our Future S.T.A.R.S. Scholarship, Bursary and Mentoring Awards programme aims to:

- SUPPORT disadvantaged students into music education and into the industry
- Nurture TALENT by removing social, ideological and financial barriers
- Improve ACCESS to education, opportunity and employment within music
- Create new REALITIES by raising aspiration in under-represented groups
- Enable SUCCESS for anyone with the talent and the drive to achieve it

We would encourage all applicants to be proactive and communicative throughout the application process.

2. BURSARIES

2.1 London

ACCESS TO MUSIC BURSARY (LONDON)

This bursary is available to applicants whose circumstances may otherwise prevent them from commencing their studies with the aim of promoting greater diversity. For each academic year 20/21 and 21/22, there are three bursaries available to outstanding applicants who may not otherwise be able to study with us. The bursary is worth £3,000 per year (up to a maximum of £9,000 in total) and will be paid directly to the successful applicants.

To be eligible applicants or students should:

- Demonstrate outstanding potential, evidenced through a portfolio of work and a personal statement
- Have been accepted on any of our higher education programmes at our London campus
- Be a UK national applying to study your first degree (you must not have completed a degree level course already)
- Come from a low participation neighbourhood and have a household income of less than £25,000 per annum

Applications can be made by completing a Scholarship and Bursary Application form from scholarships@pointblankmusicchool.com

2.2 WOMEN IN MUSIC BURSARY (LONDON)

This bursary is available to female applicants from low participation neighbourhoods. For each academic year 20/21 and 21/22, there are two bursaries available to outstanding female applicants who may not otherwise be able to study with us. The bursary is worth £3,000 per year (up to a maximum of £9,000 in total) and will be paid directly to the successful applicants.

To be eligible applicants or students should:

- Demonstrate outstanding potential, evidenced through a portfolio of work and a personal statement
- Have been accepted on any of our higher education programmes at our London campus
- Be a UK national applying to study their first degree (you must not have completed a degree level course already)
- Be a female from a low participation neighbourhood and have a household income of less than £25,000 per annum

Applications can be made by completing a Scholarship and Bursary Application form from scholarships@pointblankmusicschool.com

2.3 Applicant Responsibilities

Financial Evidence

Bursary applicants will be required to provide financial evidence to show that they meet the financial eligibility criteria as part of the bursary application process.

To prove household income, the applicant will need to show one of the following as evidence:

- P60
- Self-assessment tax form
- Month 12 / week 53 payslip
- Headed Letter from employer confirming employment and salary
- Universal credit confirmation letter

Other forms of financial evidence will be reviewed; however, it is at the discretion of the Scholarships Team as to whether the alternative form of evidence is suitable or not.

An applicant may be given a deadline by which they are required to provide their financial evidence. If the applicant misses this deadline, their Bursary application may be withdrawn.

Applicants suspected or proven to provide fraudulent financial evidence or found making false claims as part of their Bursary application, will be withdrawn from the application process and will be ineligible to apply for further funding.

Applications are made by completion of the Financial Support Application form and inclusion of a portfolio. Applicant Responsibilities

Interviews

Scholarship and grant applicants may be required to attend an interview as part of the application process. The aim of the interview is to establish the applicant is suitable for the funding and can meet the eligibility criteria.

The Scholarships Team will aim to schedule an interview at a mutually convenient time, where possible.

If an applicant fails to attend an interview, it is at the discretion of the Scholarships Team to offer a further interview opportunity.

4. BURSARY & SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Students in receipt of funding from Point Blank should consider themselves ambassadors of the school and demonstrate the core values of school at all times.

Where applicable, scholarship, bursaries and grant funds will be disbursed periodically throughout the programme. After the initial disbursement, the recipient must maintain satisfactory academic progress and meet the minimum attendance requirement to continue to receive funds.

If the recipient fails to maintain satisfactory academic progress or meet the minimum attendance requirement (65%), the scholarship will be forfeited, and the recipient is liable for all remaining tuition charges that would have otherwise been paid by the scholarship.

Students in receipt of scholarships or bursaries may be asked and be expected to attend external and internal events or contribute to marketing material. This includes, but is not limited to, Open Days, Induction Days, Recruitment Events and Masterclasses. Each recipient will be obliged to attend a minimum of one event per academic year at a mutually agreeable time.

5. HARDSHIP FUND

5.1 HARDSHIP FUND (LONDON)

As part of our commitment to provide financial assistance for students who meet financial hardship whilst studying a student loan-funded course with us, we have the Hardship Support Fund available. This fund provides financial support to a select number of current students studying a higher education course who have met unforeseen financial hardship during their studies. For some students, a grant from our Hardship Support Fund can make all the difference, allowing them to refocus on their studies and successfully graduate. The maximum award is £1,000 per year.

5.2 HARDSHIP FUND (ONLINE)

As part of our commitment to provide financial assistance for students who meet financial hardship whilst studying a student loan-funded online course with us, we have the Hardship Support Fund available. This fund provides financial support to a select number of current students studying a higher education course who have met unforeseen financial hardship during their studies. For some students, a grant from our Hardship Support Fund can make all the difference, allowing them to refocus on their studies and successfully graduate. The maximum award is £1,000 per year.

5.3 Application process

Students must apply for the Hardship Fund by sending a cover letter and any financial evidence to support@pointblankmusicschool.com

Applications will be assessed by the Student Support Team in order of receipt, continually throughout the academic year.

All successful Hardship Fund applicants will be notified if they have been accepted or refused their application for the fund.

Point Blank will attempt to contact the selected recipient by the email provided on the application. If the recipient does not respond within 7 days of the first contact attempt, the offer will be rescinded.

5.4 Applicant Responsibilities

Interviews

Hardship Fund applicants may be required to attend an interview as part of the application process. The aim of the interview is to establish the applicant is suitable for the funding and is in genuine financial hardship.

The Student Support Team will aim to schedule an interview at a mutually convenient time, where possible.

If an applicant fails to attend an interview, it is at the discretion of the Student Support Team to offer a further interview opportunity.

Financial Evidence

Hardship Fund applicants will be required to provide financial evidence to demonstrate the cause of their financial issue.

The applicant may provide the following as evidence:

- P60
- Self-assessment tax form
- Month 12 / week 53 payslip
- Headed Letter from employer confirming employment and salary
- Universal credit confirmation letter
- Documents from employers
- Bank statements
- Childcare receipts
- Doctors notes

Other forms of financial evidence will be reviewed; however, it is at the discretion of the Student Support Team as to whether the alternative form of evidence is suitable or not.

An applicant may be given a deadline by which they to provide their financial evidence. If the applicant misses this deadline, their Hardship Fund application may be withdrawn.

Applicants suspected or proven to provide fraudulent financial evidence or found making false claims as part of their Hardship Fund application, will be withdrawn from the application process and will be ineligible to apply for further funding.

6. TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Scholarships, bursaries, and grants may only be used towards the cost of a Point Blank course, are not transferable and may not be redeemed for cash value.
- Failure to accept the scholarship within 7 days of the offer being emailed will result in the scholarship, bursary or grant being rescinded.
